

MYM TECHNOLOGY (M) SDN BHD (MYM) is committed to manufacture Plastic Injection Moulded Parts in the Provision of EMI (Electromagnetic) Shielding, Metallizing, Sputtering and Assembly services for Electronics and Automotive components. MYM shall continually improve our Quality Management System (QMS) & Environmental Management System (EMS) to keep up with the market demand and in line with our Quality & Environmental Policy as follows:

- Consistently meeting our customer's and interested party's expectations, and operating under environmental friendly atmosphere;
- Complying with all applicable compliance obligations to which our company subscribes.
- Promote protection of environmental, including pollution prevention practices are in place and continual improvement on the environmental performance of our daily operations.
- We shall implement measures and strategies that will promote waste minimization and avoid using banned and toxic material and pollution prevention in our manufacturing process, conservation of resources in the area of water and energy and recycling of waste;
- To communicate this policy to the relevant functions within the organization or interested parties and as a framework to establish quality & environmental objectives.
- To conduct regular review and periodical audit of policy, objectives and procedures with employees involvement to ensure continual improvement and effectiveness of Quality & Environmental Management System.

Approved by:

YH. Dato' WP Leong
Chairman

Date: 03rd January 2022